

Terms of Service

Rough Cut Manufacturing ("Company," "we," "us") provides the WorkTrackPro application (the "Service"). These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern your access to and use of the Service.

Effective date: June 17, 2026

Contact: Jacob Rough, CEO — jacobrrough@gmail.com

1. Acceptance of these Terms

By accessing or using the Service, you agree to these Terms and to our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, do not use the Service. If you use the Service on behalf of an organization, you represent that you are authorized to bind that organization.

2. The Service

WorkTrackPro provides job and manufacturing management, inventory, and accounting features, including invoicing, estimates, and—where enabled—bank-feed and accounting-platform integrations.

We may add, change, or remove features over time.

3. Accounts and eligibility

You must provide accurate information, keep your credentials confidential, enable multi-factor authentication where required, and are responsible for activity under your account. You must be of legal age to form a binding contract.

4. Acceptable use

You agree not to: (a) use the Service unlawfully or to violate the rights of others; (b) attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Service or its systems; (c) interfere with or disrupt the Service; (d) reverse engineer or copy the Service except as permitted by law; or (e) upload malicious code or content you lack the right to use.

5. Your data and content

You retain ownership of the data and content you submit ("Customer Data"). You grant us a limited license to host and process Customer Data solely to provide and support the Service. You are responsible for the accuracy and lawfulness of Customer Data and for having the necessary rights and consents to provide it to us.

6. Financial-account connections

If you connect a bank, credit-card, or accounting account (e.g., via Plaid or QuickBooks Online), you authorize us and those providers to access and use the related information to provide the Service, as described in our Privacy Policy. You may disconnect at any time.

7. Third-party services

The Service integrates with third-party providers (e.g., Supabase, Netlify, Plaid, Intuit). Your use of those services may be subject to their terms and privacy policies. We are not responsible for third-party services we do not control.

8. Intellectual property

The Service, including its software, design, and content (excluding Customer Data), is owned by the Company and its licensors and is protected by applicable law. We grant you a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the Service per these Terms.

9. Disclaimers

The Service is provided "as is" and "as available," without warranties of any kind, express or implied, including merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement. We do not warrant that the Service will be uninterrupted, error-free, or that data will always be accurate. The Service does not provide legal, tax, or accounting advice.

10. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Company will not be liable for indirect, incidental, special, consequential, or punitive damages, or for lost profits or data. Our total liability for any claim relating to the Service will not exceed the amounts you paid us for the Service in the twelve months before the claim (or USD $100 if none).

11. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from claims arising out of your Customer Data, your use of the Service, or your violation of these Terms or applicable law.

12. Termination

You may stop using the Service at any time. We may suspend or terminate access if you violate these Terms or to protect the Service or its users. On termination, your right to use the Service ends; we handle remaining data per our Data Retention & Deletion Policy.

13. Governing law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of California, without regard to conflict-of-laws rules. Disputes will be resolved in the state or federal courts located in California, unless applicable law requires otherwise.

14. Changes to these Terms

We may update these Terms; we will post the updated version with a new effective date and, where required, provide additional notice. Continued use after changes means you accept the updated

Terms.
